

CanoeKayak BC Event Hosting/Sanction Requirements

IN CONSIDERATION OF THE GRANTING OF THIS SANCTION BY CANOEKAYAK BC, the Member Club organizing the event/activity agrees to the following:

1. This sanction, if approved, may not be transferred.
2. This sanction is valid only for the dates issued.
3. No sanction for any event will be granted for any event where the terms CanoeKayak Canada (CKC) or International Canoe Federation (ICF) or any derivative thereof is used in any advertisement or notice in any manner in connection with said event. Exceptions may be granted ONLY with approval of CKBC Executive Committee.
4. The Member Club shall pay all expenses connected with the proper conduct of the meet and shall abide by and enforce all rules and regulations of the appropriated discipline of CKBC and CKC.
5. The Member Club shall hold harmless CanoeKayak BC of all financial obligations or contractual liability incurred by the Member Club in holding this event.
6. The Member Club will follow the proper technical rules of the sport.
7. The activity will be conducted by qualified officials.
8. The Member Club will be covered by any insurance program that CanoeKayak BC has in force at the time. If a third party insurance certificate is desired, appropriate application request must be submitted to the CanoeKayak BC office as established on the 'Request for Certificate of Insurance Request Form'.
9. Provisions will be made for proper medical supervision during the activity, as well as safety precautions to protect the personal welfare of the competitors and spectators.
10. An athlete's entry will not be considered valid unless the athlete is a properly registered member of CanoeKayak BC. Announcements, information flyers and entry blanks of sanctioned events must state that no entries will be accepted unless the entrant is a properly registered member of CanoeKayak BC (or by way of membership a member of CanoeKayak Canada or our American counterpart – USACK).
11. The Member Club will file results and other reports as required by CanoeKayak BC.
12. Failure to comply with the conditions of this sanction will cause immediate and direct withdrawal of said sanction and may have implications for further sanctioning.
13. All Member Club events require sanction approval by CanoeKayak BC prior to advertising/posting any event information.
